

Speaker Bio: Mark Sharratt

Founder, Energy Alchemy
Regional Director, Dale Carnegie
Chair, The Supper Club

Mark Sharratt is a much sought-after keynote speaker, consultant and executive coach. Mark helps companies achieve increased growth by enhancing their business strategy and removing critical constraints that have become barriers to growth.

With a career that spans the Digital, Telecoms and Media sectors, Mark has consulted with organisations large and small to achieve improved results by developing the culture, mindset and the fundamental core behaviours that will drive team performance and business results.

Mark has developed a niche for working with entrepreneurs and high-growth SMEs to help them sustain their trajectory by optimising the return from their most valuable asset, their people. From leadership teams, to sales and operations, Mark has an impressive track record of building team effectiveness, capabilities, performance and business results.

Mark is a Scot living in South East England, where he enjoys a passion for cycling, exploring the English countryside and “the weather” (he’s originally from Glasgow, where it apparently rains a lot).
